

Grampian Regional Equality Council

Job Opportunity

Policy Officer

16 hours a week

Fixed term until September 30th 2024 (with potential for extension)

Salary £27,000 (FTE)

GREC is developing a new Policy Officer role within its team. This role will be crucial for GREC meeting one of its strategic outcomes which is to influence policy and practice at a national and local level. The overall aim of the role is to effectively influence change around key issues of inequality and discrimination affecting communities in Grampian.

The Officer will be working across the GREC staff team, to ensure that the lived experiences of our clients and community connections are effectively captured in a way that can be used to effectively influence policy makers. Working with GREC's General Manager, the post will also involve regular engagement with policy makers at a local and national level, as well as regular interaction with GREC's Policy and Research Committee.

The project is funded by Scottish Government's Equality and Human Rights Fund. The Policy Officer will be expected to contribute to funder reports and meetings.

For informal enquiries e-mail dblack@grec.co.uk or call 01224 595505.

Applications to be returned by 9am on Monday, October 4th 2021.

Interviews will be held on the morning of October 8th 2021.

Click here for an application pack and to download the application form. Please call 01224 595505 if you have any problems accessing the documents.

CVs will not be accepted

GREC is a registered charity, established in 1985. Through our services and projects we tackle discrimination, promote good community relations, support the management of diversity, and influence policy and practice across all sectors. Find out more at www.grec.co.uk

Registered Scottish Charity: SC001823; Company No. SC396286